

University of Greenwich International College

📍 London, England, UK

A welcoming, diverse university where you'll feel at home and supported to succeed—set in historic London and Kent.

A place for minds to meet, ideas to spark and adventures to begin

One of the few London universities that has everything you need in one place. Teaching, social, sports and living spaces are all on campus or close by. The University of Greenwich is a modern institution with strong links to industry and an emphasis on helping students meet the demands of a fast-changing workplace.

To achieve this, the university offers a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate degrees – many of which are designed specifically to meet the needs of international students.

What makes Greenwich special?

15 minutes into Central London

Exciting student union, café and shops

Free on-campus gym membership (Avery Hill and Greenwich) and access to ActiveGRE activities

24/7 security staff on site

Free intercampus bus throughout the weekday between Avery Hill and Greenwich

UNESCO World Heritage Site in the heart of Greenwich

One of the many reasons that students come to the University of Greenwich is its location, which offers the excitement and attractions of London coupled with the countryside charm of Kent. Greenwich is one of the prettiest areas in London with its historic buildings on the River Thames.

University of Greenwich has invested more than £150 million in laboratories, teaching spaces and student facilities. The newly refurbished Bounty House, home to the international college, is a short walk to the main campus. The Stockwell Street building also houses a high-tech library, film and TV studio.

- 15 minutes into Central London
- Easily accessible from 3 London airports: Heathrow, Gatwick and London City

#2 London university for sustainability (Times Higher Education Impact Rankings 2024)

Study options at UGIC

International Year Zero (IYZ)

Business and Management | Engineering | Science | Computing | Social Sciences and Law

International Year One (IY1)

Business and Management | Engineering

International Incorporated Masters (IIM)
Business and Management | Engineering | Computing

Student life

Do more of what you love at uni. We have loads of Students' Union societies and a packed social events calendar. You will find everything from club nights to anime and games sessions at the university bar.

You can also join a university team in a sport you love or have a go at something new. Want to work on your dance moves? Join our dance team and take classes in jazz, street dance or dancehall styles.

The Dreadnought building is a new central hub for all student academic and social activities. Alongside teaching and computing areas, you will find a café, restaurant, gym, and a concert and events venue.

Hear about why students love University of Greenwich International College

No.3 London university for graduate prospects in Marketing

Find out more

Entry requirements

Degree listing

Fees and Scholarships